

“Through their knowledge on tax laws of the State of California they take the risk out of the process.”

Don Ratcliff, a retired California businessman, purchased his Cessna Citation CJ1 on March 13, 2007. He said, “Aero & Marine are a professional group. They know what they're doing. Through their knowledge on tax laws of the State of California they take the risk out of the process.”

In addition to acknowledging Aero & Marine's tax service as a benefit to him, this owner-operator said enthusiastically, he would, “absolutely recommend,” Aero & Marine to friends or other business associates. Mr. Ratcliff concluded that if he had to do it all over again, he would retain the services of Aero & Marine Tax Professionals.
