

“All I had to do was follow the rules and never get behind. Everyone did great follow up.”

When a California based farmer needed to purchase an Aviat Husky A-1C airplane, he turned to Aero & Marine Tax Professionals to help him save money on the sales tax.

An executive from the company stated: “We mainly use the plane for observation on the farm for our cotton, corn, alfalfa, tomatoes, and cantaloupe, we have 5,000 acres. We don’t use the aircraft for any application of chemicals or such; it’s mainly a way to get around and do observations. One of the companies I grow melons for has an office in Arizona, and I travel there occasionally to go over contracts.”

“I really liked that Aero & Marine Tax Professionals was straight forward, they told me what to do. All I had to do was follow the rules and never get behind. Everyone did great follow up. Everyone was so easy to deal with. Whatever needed to be done got done with no nonsense. I would recommend Aero & Marine Tax Professionals to others.”
